

Introductory Beekeeping Course

Instructor: Rick Cooper

This two-hour course will offer an introduction and brief overview of beekeeping. If you are interested in beekeeping, but not yet sure if you want to make the time or financial commitment, this is the course for you. After taking this course, you can make a well-informed decision. If you would like to pursue beekeeping, we will be offering a full eight-week beekeeping course starting mid-February.

This introductory course will discuss: equipment requirements, races of bees, locating beehives, getting and installing your bees, honey plants and bee food needs, pollination, pesticides, swarm control, diseases, medication, and more.
