

Evan Cuddy

Evan graduated from Susquehanna University with a bachelor's degree in Music, and is currently working on his Master's degree in music performance at the University of Southern Maine. His experience in teaching comes from seven summers as head counselor of music and drama at Camp Wawenock in Raymond Maine, as well as the Southern Maine String Camp in Winthrop Maine. In March 2011, he became a certified instructor of the Mark O'Connor violin method. Evan has served as a sectional violist in the Williamsport Symphony Orchestra, as well as the Susquehanna Valley Chorale Orchestra. Evan is currently a violist of the St. Mary Schola ensemble. In addition to performing and teaching, Evan enjoys composing and recording.

View Evan's Courses: Interactive Music Theory