

Join musician Earl Bigelow for Group Guitar Lessons on Saturday afternoons at The Long Branch School this winter. Earl will have two groups, one in the early afternoon for beginner levels and one in the later afternoons for more experienced players. Lessons are $20/hour.

Register by email, info@longbranchschool.com, or by phone, 666-8900.

About Earl Bigelow: Earl is well known for music performances in Midcoast Maine for thirty years. He has played in a variety of bands and duos and has worked for the past twenty years with the Big Chips Trio with his wife Nancy and Piano player Michael Chipman. Earl continues to share the stage with David Hunt and the Blues Buzzards. For ten years, he has been teaching guitar at Music and Moore in Topsham. Earl is excited about extending his lessons to students at the Long Branch School.