

Interactive Music Theory

Instructor: Evan Cuddy

Do you play an instrument but were never great at reading music? Perhaps you don't even play an instrument but are willing to dip your toes into music? If you enjoy music, you'll enjoy this class!

This 8 hour class over 4 consecutive Saturdays works as an introduction to music theory, including the written and listening aspects of music. Students will gain skills through singing or playing instruments, composing their own tunes, and simply by listening to one another. Students will gain experience in reading music on a page, as well as creating music with one another.
